He is Worthy To Be Praised
April 24, 2016 8:30 am

We are all attacked on a daily basis. Many times we don't realize it because God tells Satan "not today." We must remain faithful to the Lord. God has been good to us yesterday, today, tomorrow. We are people who don't look like what we've been through.

1. We are invited to acclaim him through praise.
We are to bear witness to who he is and what he had done for us
2. We are invited to acclaim him through performance.
Every now and then if we are saved we need to show some sign.
3. We are invited to approach him in an uninhibited way.
We ought to praise the Lord right where he blesses you. We ought to be grateful to be here and be glad.
4. We are invited to adore him.
If we know him we need no invitation rather another opportunity to adore him.

1 Thes 5:18 Thank You Jesus

A thanks is a word too seldom heard, rarely spoken, and often forgotten. We all should have an attitude of gratitude. God blesses us in spite of us. Won't he do it. Oh yes he will. God has done so much for us that it would take us all day long to give him praise. If God didn't do it for us, we wouldn't have what we have right now

1. Gratitude is always expressed.
It is not an option rather an obligation. We Thai someone owe us something. But out of gratitude we ought to thank God for he has done for me.
2. Gratitude should be expansive We should not feel grateful but we ought to be grateful. We you operate in faith you need not Look at your finances because it was for the grace of God and no one else. We need to be grateful for the burdens Good times don't build character; without rain on your life you will never grow. All the beautiful things in life has to come up through some dirt.
3. Gratitude is expected In all thing we out to give God praise.
