Jerry Morris & Summer Houston Application

DUE – March 29, 2024

The Union Pacific Railroad Black Employee Network Jerry Morris and Summer Houston Scholarships are provided to assist African American students in defraying the cost of higher education. Students are awarded scholarship amounts up to $2,000 and recipients are chosen on the basis of scholastic ability and leadership. Personal or family financial situations can be a factor in consideration of eligibility and in awarding the scholarship. Current employees and dependents of UP employees are ineligible for this scholarship. All decisions are within the discretion of the Black Employee Network Scholarship Committee and are final.
